ECPI UNIVERSITY

🏛 Criminal Justice

Program Summary

Aspiring to make a real difference in your community? The Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice equips you with the knowledge and skills to tackle crime head-on. This program takes a hands-on approach, providing a deep dive into the operations of law enforcement, corrections, the court system, and private security. You'll graduate prepared for a fulfilling career path safeguarding society, with potential opportunities in areas like law enforcement, homeland security, and forensic investigation.

Our curriculum doesn't just focus on theory – it delves into the intricacies of the legal system and equips you with the advancements in technology used to investigate and deter crime. Join a program designed to prepare you to become a defender of justice and make a lasting impact on the safety and security of your community.

Develop a strong foundation in law enforcement procedures, legal systems, security principles, and the technological advancements used in modern criminal justice investigations. Earn your bachelor's degree in as little as 2.5 years with ECPI's year-round accelerated schedule.

Program Outcomes

Upon program completion, graduates will be able to:

‣ Evaluate the quality and sufficiency of evidence in the criminal justice process.

‣ Assess criminal justice issues using modern techniques including technology.

‣ Analyze the impact of human behavior on crime.

‣ Apply ethical standards across professional and personal settings.

‣ Apply the skills needed to manage crisis within various populations.

‣ Evaluate emergency operations plans.